APTOS

APTOS specializes in selling unique products under APTOS brand - medical products for plastic, aesthetic surgery and cosmetology.

The company sells not only directly, but also through its own distribution network, which allows to provide doctors and medical organizations in different countries and regions of the country with APTOS medical products in the shortest possible time. The company's mission is to create and offer patients the most effective products and methods that in the hands of specialists can extend youth and preserve the natural beauty. The company is also the founder of TOTAL CHARM - a network of clinics of aesthetic medicine.

In addition, APTOS company is a partner of the social program to help patients with facial paresis of mimic muscles. The use of APTOS thread lifting methods by doctors allows to eliminate asymmetry of the patient's face free of charge and in case of facial nerve damage due to static suspension of soft tissues of the face with the help of notched threads (the effectiveness of these methods is usually very high as there is no mimic activity on the affected side).

In accordance with financial performance, the company's revenue has been stable over the past three years. The company's activity is profitable, and its net assets are positive.

The company's head office is in Moscow. In addition, APTOS company has branches in the Russian Federation - in Krasnodar, Nizhny Novgorod, St. Petersburg, Voronezh, Samara, Ekaterinburg, Irkutsk, and its own distribution network in Russia and abroad.
